Ron Klasko Addresses California Corporate HR Managers and Lawyers At Relocation Management Conference

Philadelphia, PA. May 19, 2008: H. Ronald Klasko, the founding partner of the immigration law firm Klasko, Rulon, Stock & Seltzer LLP, recently addressed over 75 corporate HR managers and relocation specialists on “Hot Business Immigration Topics” at a program sponsored by the Bay Area Professionals in Relocation Management and the Alliance of Business Immigration Lawyers.

His talk offered strategies for the winners and losers in the H-1B lottery, and examined the E-verify program and the impact of state and local laws on immigration matters.

For nearly 30 years, Mr. Klasko has practiced exclusively immigration law. He is a former national President and three-term General Counsel of the American Immigration Lawyers Association. He is listed in the 2008 edition of the Best Lawyers in America and is named one of the country’s top immigration lawyers by Chambers Global: The World’s Leading Lawyers for Business 2008. A frequent lecturer and prolific author on immigration law topics, Mr. Klasko is one of only two immigration lawyers ever honored by AILA with the Founders Award—an award given to the individual or group who has had the most important impact on immigration law. A graduate of Lehigh University (B.A. 1971), Ron received his law degree from the University of Pennsylvania Law School (J.D. 1974).

Klasko, Rulon, Stock & Seltzer, LLP is one of the country’s leading business immigration and nationality law firms. The firm has offices in Philadelphia and New York.
