Ron Klasko Addresses Immigration Lawyers on EB-5 Investment Program

Philadelphia, PA. April 1, 2008 - H. Ronald Klasko, the founding partner of the immigration law firm Klasko, Rulon, Stock & Seltzer LLP, recently addressed immigration lawyers from Florida on the advantages of using the EB-5 Regional Center Investment Program to assist their foreign clients wishing to invest in the United States and get a visa. His speech was part of a program organized by the Philadelphia Regional Center.

Mr. Klasko addressed how these centers may be the only option for some kinds of clients and how lawyers should exercise due diligence in selecting the right approved regional center, including the approved one in Philadelphia.

For nearly 30 years, Mr. Klasko has practiced exclusively immigration law. He is a former national President and three-term General Counsel of the American Immigration Lawyers Association. He is listed in the 2008 edition of the Best Lawyers in America and is named one of the country's top immigration lawyers by Chambers Global: The World's Leading Lawyers for Business 2008. A frequent lecturer and prolific author on immigration law topics, Mr. Klasko is one of only two immigration lawyers ever honored by the AILA with the Founders Award—an award given to the individual or group who has had the most important impact on immigration law. A graduate of Lehigh University (B.A. 1971), Ron received his law degree from the University of Pennsylvania Law School (J.D. 1974).

Klasko, Rulon, Stock & Seltzer, LLP is one of the country's leading business immigration and nationality law firms. The firm has offices in Philadelphia and New York.
