Philadelphia Attorney Ron Klasko Addresses Immigration Lawyers At Florida Bar Association Annual Immigration Conference

Philadelphia, PA April 8, 2008 - H. Ronald Klasko, the founding partner of the immigration law firm Klasko, Rulon, Stock & Seltzer LLP, recently addressed over 300 immigration lawyers at the Florida Bar Association's Annual Immigration Law Update.

He served as a panelist on a program entitled "Employment Based Immigration: Where are we Now?" and as the discussion leader on a second program entitled "Federal Court Redress for Adjudication Delays."

For nearly 30 years, Mr. Klasko has practiced exclusively immigration law. He is a former national President and three-term General Counsel of the American Immigration Lawyers Association. He is listed in the 2008 edition of the Best Lawyers in America and is named one of the country's top immigration lawyers by Chambers Global: The World's Leading Lawyers for Business 2008. A frequent lecturer and prolific author on immigration law topics, Mr. Klasko is one of only two immigration lawyers ever honored by the AILA with the Founders Award—an award given to the individual or group who has had the most important impact on immigration law. A graduate of Lehigh University (B.A. 1971), Ron received his law degree from the University of Pennsylvania Law School (J.D. 1974).

Klasko, Rulon, Stock & Seltzer, LLP is one of the country's leading business immigration and nationality law firms. The firm has offices in Philadelphia and New York.
