Klasko Immigration Law Partners Welcomes Jessica DeNisi as Partner

Klasko Immigration Law Partners, an internationally renowned employment-based immigration law firm, is thrilled to welcome Jessica DeNisi as its newest partner. Effective Monday, May 6, 2024, Jessica will rejoin Klasko Immigration to co-lead the EB-5 Regional Center and Developer Practice from the firm's Washington D.C. office, contributing significantly to the firm's continued growth in this area.

H. Ronald Klasko, Chairman of Klasko Immigration Law Partners and head of the EB-5 practice, expressed his excitement about Jessica's return, stating, "Jessica has a well-deserved reputation for creative solutions for investors and developers using the EB-5 and other investment-based migration options, and I am thrilled to welcome her back as a partner. I look forward to working together as we expand our practice."

Jessica, a distinguished member of the award-winning EB-5 team during her previous tenure with the firm, brings a wealth of experience and expertise to her new role. Notably, Jessica enhanced her expertise through her most recent role as Attorney Advisor with the Department of State. In this role, she provided advice on legal issues affecting visa applications at US consulates worldwide, as well as broadening her network and enhancing her proficiency in government negotiations and advocacy.

In addition to Jessica's EB-5 and government experience, she also worked with entrepreneurial, high-net-worth individuals in their investment-based immigration pursuits. She regularly represented E-2 investors and has creatively prepared immigration petitions for L-1 clients for their global businesses.

Timothy D'Arduini, Partner-in-Charge of the firm's D.C. office, commented, "Jessica's diverse expertise and business acumen make her an invaluable addition to our growing national and international presence. Her deep understanding of the inner workings of the State Department and Bureau of Consular Affairs will help our clients address the most complex consular issues everywhere in the world. We're excited to have her on board as a partner and to collaborate on providing extraordinary solutions and service to our clients."

Expressing her enthusiasm for rejoining Klasko Immigration, Jessica remarked, "Returning to Klasko Immigration in this new capacity is incredibly exciting. I am eager to join the leadership of the EB-5 regional center and developer practice area under the EB-5 Reform and Integrity Act and collaborate once again with Ron and the firm to help clients attract investment and grow jobs in the United States."

The addition of Jessica, coupled with the recent addition of Brian Green as Of Counsel to the firm to expand the firm's EB-5 litigation capacity, will enable Klasko Immigration's EB-5 practice to meet the growing demands for its services in this important practice area.

Klasko Immigration is proud to welcome Jessica DeNisi to the firm and encourages any investors, developers, or regional centers in need of an immigration lawyer to schedule a consultation with Jessica. To learn more about Klasko Immigration Law Partners, please visit KlaskoLaw.com.
