Klasko Immigration Law Partners Welcomes Brian Green to Litigation Team

Klasko Immigration Law Partners is thrilled to welcome Brian Green to its esteemed Immigration Litigation Practice Team.

Brian joins the firm as Of Counsel and will play a key role in supporting clients facing delays and improper denials through strategic litigation. With an impressive track record spanning state and federal courts, Brian brings over a decade of experience in successfully litigating more than 1,000 immigration cases. His extensive expertise includes navigating complex legal challenges and advocating for clients' rights in diverse immigration matters. He is admitted to practice before 30 district courts, all circuit courts of appeal, and the Supreme Court. He is currently Vice Chair of AILA's National Benefits Litigation Committee and regularly presents on addressing immigration problems through litigation at CLE conferences across the country.

Ron Klasko, Chairman of Klasko Immigration Law Partners and Chair of the Immigration Litigation Practice, expressed his enthusiasm about Brian's addition, stating, "Brian is an excellent addition to the team. He brings a wealth of immigration litigation experience, which is still a rare asset and a necessary tool for our clients. I look forward to working with Brian on many successful cases ahead."

Brian Green's dedication to advocating for immigrant rights and his outstanding legal acumen make him an invaluable asset to Klasko Immigration Law Partners. His role further strengthens the firm's ability to provide top-tier representation and cutting-edge solutions to its clients.

Brian reflected that, "It is very gratifying when our creative litigation strategies solve problems for our clients' businesses or improve our individual clients' lives. I'm excited to join the lawyers at Klasko who share these goals, and to collaborate with them on cutting edge litigation under the Immigration and Nationality Act and the Administrative Procedure Act."
