Klasko Immigration Law Partners and Founders Recognized in Chambers and Partners Global Guide 2026

Klasko Immigration Law Partners is pleased to announce its recognition in Chambers and Partners' Global Guide 2026, the prestigious legal ranking publication that identifies top law firms and practitioners around the world.

For 2026, Klasko Immigration Law Partners has once again been ranked Band 2 in Immigration: Business | Global, reflecting the firm's sustained excellence in immigration law. In addition to the firm's Band 2 designation, two of the firm's founders continue to earn individual recognition in the guide:

- H. Ronald (Ron) Klasko – Senior Statesperson
- William (Bill) Stock – Eminent Practitioner

"We are honored that Chambers and Partners has once again recognized our firm in the Global Guide," said Ron Klasko. "This ranking reflects the depth and breadth of our attorneys' experience and the trust clients worldwide place in our counsel."

Bill Stock added, "Maintaining our Global Guide rankings underscores our commitment to delivering strategic, sophisticated immigration solutions to complex problems that multinational employers and individuals are facing in an increasingly difficult environment."

Recognition in the Chambers' Global Guide is based on independent research and rigorous evaluation of firms' capabilities, market reputation, and client feedback across jurisdictions. The guide is widely regarded as a definitive resource for legal excellence on the international stage.
