H. Ronald Klasko Inducted into the Human Resource Executive's Most Powerful Employment Attorney Hall of Fame; William Stock Recognized

PHILADELPHIA, PA -- Two founding partners of Klasko Immigration Law Partners, H. Ronald (Ron) Klasko and William (Bill) Stock, earned placement on Human Resource Executive magazine and Lawdragon's annual joint publication of this "best of" lawyer list for its 11th year.

In addition to Bill's repeated recognition, which is bestowed on only 216 lawyers, Ron has been inducted into the publication's Hall of Fame. The standard for this honor is high, with only 16 inductees this year, needing a minimum of 35 years practicing and consistently high recognition.

The selection process solicits nominations from Lawdragon's database and HRE's subscribers to carefully research and vet who makes the final list.

"Our criteria included a number of attributes, such as recent headline clients or cases; proven leadership, either as a thought leader or as the chair of a firm's labor and employment group; affiliations and associations in peer-selected organizations; and other accomplishments, such as noteworthy publications and speaking circuits," says editor and publisher of HRE, David Shadovitz.

The list is featured in HRE's June cover story and posted on the site online. "Never before has the task of counseling the intersection of businesses and their workers been more intense and more important," says CEO and publisher of Lawdragon, Katrina Dewey.
