Candace Hill is a Senior Associate at Klasko Immigration Law Partners with nearly 10 years of corporate immigration experience as both an attorney and a paralegal.

Much of her experience has been focused on advising clients in the IT sector on H-1B and L-1 visas. She has also counseled clients on F-1 change of status cap cases, maintenance of status, H-4/L-2 change of status cases, and more. She has deep experience with clients in the IT industry, particularly with clients that sponsor third-party worksite employees, multi-vendor contractual arrangements, and she is adept at resolving issues that commonly arise from those types of cases. She has also counseled and guided clients through the green card process and has ample experience in successfully responding to a wide range of RFEs.

As part of her corporate immigration services, Candace develops efficient immigration workflows, processes, and procedures. She also provides program management in which she monitors the organization's foreign national population to ensure no lapses in work authorization occur.

Candace is known for her efficient, accurate, and timely work product. She delivers superior client service with ease and clients value her thoughtful approach to complicated and stressful matters.

Candace earned a degree of Bachelor of Science in Marketing with a minor in Economics from George Mason University in Fairfax, VA in 2007, and earned a Juris
