Karuna Chandani Simbeck is Partner at Klasko Immigration Law Partners' Philadelphia office. Karuna focuses her practice on U.S. employment and family-based immigration, partnering closely with her clients, both companies and foreign nationals, to provide custom immigration solutions. Karuna manages the firm's individual case unit and is part of the firm's EB-5 team.

As an immigrant who has personal experience with the U.S. Immigration Service, Karuna has worked extensively with individual and corporate clients on a wide range of immigration matters. She counsels on corporate immigration, including nonimmigrant visas and permanent residence. Her experience also includes supporting clients' applications for naturalization, re-entry permits, and various family-based immigration matters. Karuna also has significant experience with the EB-5 Green Card process, having handled the preparation of hundreds of I-526 Petitions for clients from several countries, including India, South Africa, Philippines, Singapore, Vietnam, Turkey, United Kingdom, and China. Given her considerable experience, Karuna is also called on to review Petitions, Request for Evidence and Notices of Intent to Deny for other law firms.

Before joining the Firm, Karuna was an Associate at a global immigration law firm in New York City, where she gained extensive experience in business immigration for the firm's largest corporate client, a Management Consulting, Audit, Tax, and Financial Advisory firm. She focused on Permanent Residency and the PERM certification process. She also gained experience in preparing Audit responses and Motions for
