Ryan Patterson is Counsel based in the firm’s Washington D.C. office and is a seasoned and innovative immigration attorney with more than a decade of experience in the field. He specializes in creative innovative solutions that navigate the complexities of business, family, and humanitarian immigration law. Serving a diverse range of clients across industries, Ryan’s practice is dedicated to facilitating the achievement of both individual and organizational goals through the US immigration system.

Ryan first found his way to immigration as an opportunity to practice and maintain Spanish fluency through volunteer work with an immigration legal services nonprofit. This experience ignited a larger passion for the field, leading him to a career in employment-based immigration, boasting expertise across a broad spectrum of visa types, including H-1B, TN, O, L, E, F, and J-1, among others. His focus extends to assisting highly skilled workers with in-demand skills.

Mission-driven to develop and implement creative immigration strategies, Ryan empowers his clients to realize their own American dream. Known for a strong sense of empathy, attention to detail, and creative problem-solving, he brings a holistic approach to the challenges his clients face. Working together with Timothy D’Arduini, Ryan envisioned and operationalized a one-of-its-kind immigration sponsorship program in a mid-city market where he grew up, where employers can leverage the support of a robust philanthropic network to sponsor foreign talent critically needed to accelerate the economic development of the community.
